

Fine Photo of Indian Rock

J. E. Bradford, well known amateur photographer of 336 Robinson avenue, has obtained some of the finest pictures of the famous Indian Rock in the Ohio that have been so far exhibited. He has made them post card size, just the thing for sending away to former Portsmouth people. At least a hundred sets of initials are clearly distinguishable upon his pictures.

Portsmouth Daily Times
Oct. 13, 1908